

March 26, 2012

Written by Randy Simpson

Tuesday, 27 March 2012 00:54 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 March 2012 00:59

Hello friends! I had only 1 concert this past week. Sunday morning, I joined Perfect Love to fill in with Becky and Randy Miller in Haymarket, VA at Bull Run Assembly of God. Heather (who usually sings with them) is on 'maternity leave'. The crowd was small, but they sure did enjoy our singing. I certainly do like working with other professional singers, and Randy and Becky always do a great job!! I will be filling in with them for the next few months as my schedule allows. Don't forget to check out my website for a complete schedule of concerts and events. The Churchtown Concert Series has been going great with a concert every month held at my home church, Churchtown Church of God. April's concert will feature guest group Keystone State Quartet. The concert will start at 7:00 PM. Thank you to everyone that has been supporting this ministry with prayers, financial gifts, and with attending concerts !!! God bless you all !!!!

Randy